

Course Title	Introduction to Relief Wood Carving
Tutor	Belinda Edwards
Day & Time	Saturday & Sunday 10am to 5pm
Dates	20 - 21 May 2017
Course Code	WC1603011
Level	Beginners
Cost	£150

What is this course about?

Wood is one of the most natural and alive of materials. There is a unique dimension of surprise and creativity from the material itself due to the grains and textures of various woods. Wood carving opens the way to explore many other kinds of carving. This course will take you through basic principles of wood carving enabling you to carve a relief sculpture in wood. It will also introduce creative possibilities and methods relating to this unique medium.

What topics do we cover?

- o Introduction to various kinds of wood
- o Sharpening tools
- o Measuring - transfer of measurement from model to the work
- o Effective use of tools to accomplish the desired result
- o Carving skills, techniques and principles
- o Creative methods and processes

By the end of this course you will:

- o gain basic knowledge of the nature of wood
- o how to design a carving for a relief in wood
- o gain an understanding of carving in relief

About your tutor

Belinda Edwards studied ceramics and sculpture at Camberwell and Central School of Art and Design. She went on to study stone masonry at The Building Crafts College in London and is a practicing stone mason. She qualified as a teacher in 1989 with a Certificate in Education, and teaches wood and stone carving in several colleges and schools in London including Morley College, City Lit, Mary Ward, The London Institute, Southwark College, Redbridge College.

What level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

This course is for beginners at introductory level, or those wishing to extend skills.

How will I be taught, and what feedback and support will I get?

Your experienced tutor will support you throughout the course in both group sessions and one-to-one support providing regular feedback, critique and constructive advice. Each course ends in a final round up session and should you wish for any specific feedback or support, please speak with your tutor at the start of your course.

When I've finished, what course can I do next?

There are a variety of short courses available over the holidays, also a wide range of evening classes, and weekend classes.

If you have more time available huge development can be made in your practice by attending one of our part time day classes in sculpture or the sculpture certificate programme. Please see all the options available on our web site.
