What is this course about?

A well-structured and systematic course for those who have never painted before or want to start from the beginning. Students learn to see colour, shape and tone and relate all these elements together through composition. This course aims to foster self-confidence and enjoyment of painting in a stimulating community environment. There will be work from both still-life and life models. Students will learn how to handle oil paint and understand different ways of approaching painting. Throughout the course students will learn from works of many artists to improve their development. There is plenty of guidance from the tutor and the course is fun and relaxing.

What topics do we cover?

- Handling light and shadow
- Laying out a basic palette
- Understanding of how colour works in painting
- Different applications of paint
- A methodical approach
- Handling composition
- How to paint a portrait
- Abstraction of a photo
- Develop visual observation

By the end of this course you will: understand how to use oil paints. Be able to undertake painting alone. Understand how to mix colours, and have a good understanding of colour theory. Have an understanding of tone, composition, handling paint, and more. Have a number of paintings to take home.

About your tutor

Katharine Prendergast is a practising artist who lives and exhibits in London. She studied at St Oswald's School of Painting and City and Guilds School of Art. She has been teaching at The Art Academy since 2008. You can view selected works at www.katharineprendergast.com

What level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

This course is ideal for all levels but particularly beginners or those new to Oil paint.

How will I be taught, and what feedback and support will I get?

Your experienced tutor will support you throughout the course in both group sessions and one-to-one support providing daily feedback, critique and constructive advice. Each course ends in a final round up session and should you wish for any specific feedback or support, please speak with your tutor at the start of your course.

When I've finished, what course can I do next?

There are a variety of courses available as short courses over the Easter and the Summer holidays, also a wide range of weekend and evening classes, such as Life Drawing, Intermediate Drawing, Drawing for Beginners – a creative approach and specialist Master-classes in Painting and Drawing.

If you have more time available, huge development can be made in your practice by attending one of our part time day classes in drawing and painting, or our certificate programme. Please see all the options available on our web site.

Are there any other costs? What else should I bring each lesson?

The Academy is a white spirit and turpentine free environment and only odourless spirits, such as Zest-it or Sansodor, are permitted on the premises. Students must provide their own spirits, which can be recycled for longevity. We request that you bring 2 small jars (one with a lid, one without) to hold your spirit, and a few cloths rags for brush cleaning (such as an old cotton t-shirt).

You will need to bring your own painting materials to the class, which you can store at The Art Academy for the duration of the course. If you do not have your own materials, we recommend you order an Oil Painting Pack at the time of booking, which will be available when you arrive for your first class. If you are bringing your own materials Katharine has written a list of what you will need for the course. There is also a mini shop in the office that supplies the basics such as canvas boards, paints, Zest-it etc. (cash purchases only).

An Oil Painting Pack (£50.00) contains:

A set of bristle brushes, both flat and round, suitable for either oils or acrylics

One tear off palette (9"x12")

One palette knife

One bottle Zest-it (250ml)

One 10"x 12" canvas board

One 10"x 14" canvas board

Two 12"x 16" canvas boards

6 Daler Rowney (Georgian) oil tubes: Titanium White, Cadmium Yellow, Alizarin Crimson, Cadmium Red, French Ultramarine and Burnt Umber

If you are bringing your own materials Katharine has written a list below of what to bring:

- A few hog hair brushes (Varied sizes)
- A few synthetic oil brushes (Varied sizes)
- A palette. Wooden or tear off are both fine. Flat ones are best, no wells. Medium or large size are easier to work with.
- A palette knife. Diamond shape, off set is best.
- Odourless spirit, Sansodor or Zest-it
- 2 Jam Jar with lid
- A few cloth rags (old bed sheet or clothing torn up will do)

- Baby wipes or wet wipes
- Oil Paint colours:
 - Titanium White
 - Cadmium Yellow
 - Lemon Yellow
 - Alizarin Crimson
 - Cadmium Red
 - Ceruleum/Cerulean/Coeruleum blue
 - French Ultramarine Blue
 - Burnt Umber
- Stretched canvas, primed gesso wooden panels or canvas board are all good surfaces to paint onto. You will need at least 6 surfaces for the course, sizes for each painting are very flexible. Below is a list of sizes you can use as a rough guide:
 - 10"x 12"
 - 10"x 14"
 - 12"x 16"
 - 12"x 14"
 - 14"x 16"
 - 17"x 20"

Daily breakdown

Courses at the Art Academy offer a structured approach to ensure specific subjects, skills and methods are covered. Below is a daily breakdown of what will be covered. Please bear in mind that these classes will move with the pace of the class so a degree of flexibility of what will be covered on which day will be employed.

Day	Date	Topic/skills covered	Location & Tutor	What to bring	Model
1	7th Aug	Tone Starting with a demonstration the day will begin with an instructive introduction to painting. We will be looking at how to start a painting and handle paint whilst translating what we see onto canvas. AM Still Life: Using a limited pallet to make a simple painting of a still life to understand light, shadow, shape and contrast. PM Life Painting: A fun introduction to oil paint working from the life model. Continuing with the same limited pallet exploring mark making and volume.	Studio 2 Katharine Prendergast	Old clothes, Painting materials, A cloth rag, Wet Wipes 1 small canvas or board, 1 small/medium canvas or board.	PM only
2	8th Aug	Colour The day will start with an introduction to colour, learning about how colour works and colour relativity. Then combining this with what was learnt on the first day, students will do a painting of a still	Studio 2 Katharine Prendergast	Old clothes, Painting materials, A cloth rag, Wet Wipes 1 small/medium canvas or board. 		life in full colour. In this session students are encouraged to get involved in the setup of the still life. The word "still-life" has a broad meaning, and the idea is to set up something that is of interest and excitement to the individual, opposed to the 'traditional still-life'.
3	9th Aug	Abstraction Working from images that resonate with you, the aim will be to create an abstract painting that is born from the key elements of what excites you about your chosen images. These could be photos you have taken, cuttings from magazines or newspapers or photos you have found online. Students will be encouraged to enjoy the process of painting working towards a more free and fluid artwork. As a group we will discuss other artist work for guidance and inspiration.	Studio 2 Katharine Prendergast	Old clothes, Painting materials, A cloth rag, Wet Wipes 1 medium canvas or board.	No
4	10th Aug	Portrait Students will learn how to develop a portrait from sketch to completion with the luxury of two portrait models. Students will be taught what information is necessary to focus on when painting a portrait, as well as exploring composition, paint application and other artists work for inspiration.	Studio 2 Katharine Prendergast	Old clothes, Painting materials, A cloth rag, Wet Wipes 1 large canvas or board.	Yes x2
5	11th Aug	Interior We will use the studio environment as the subject for more creative painting. Students will be encouraged to use their imagination constructing a painting that is of interest to them.
