What is this course about?

This course is an accessible, creative and relaxing introduction to the basic skills of drawing. Each session will focus on a different theme, providing a wide range of techniques to raise confidence and enhance visual awareness.

Through various drawing approaches including still life, life drawing and portraiture, you will learn to explore and understand line, tone, measurement, texture and composition. There will be a life model in some sessions and students are encouraged to express themselves freely with guidance from the tutor.

What topics do we cover?

- Understanding line
- Understanding Tone
- Measurement & Proportion
- How to draw the head
- Life Drawing
- Drawing texture

By the end of this course you will: have the tools and confidence to start and finish a drawing; ten to fifteen complete drawings exploring a range of different subjects in various materials.

What level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

This is an introductory course, ideal as your first experience of drawing.

How will I be taught, and what feedback and support will I get?

Your experienced tutor will support you throughout the course in both group sessions and one-to-one support providing regular feedback, critique and constructive advice. The course ends in a final round up session and should you wish for any specific feedback or support, please speak with your tutor at the start of your course.

About your tutor:

Rebecca Glover works across the disciplines of installation, painting, sculpture and performance, exploring the connection between the body and environment.

Rebecca studied at Edinburgh College of Art (2009) and St Oswalds School of Painting (2006). She is a visiting lecturer at Central Saint Martins and The Art Academy London. Her work has been shown in CCA Glasgow for Radiophrenia (2016), Made in Roath, Cardiff (2016) and she has recently performed for Chisenhale Dance Space [2016] and APT Live in Deptford-X (2016).

Her work can be see at <http://rebeccaglover.co.uk>

When I've finished, what course can I do next?

There are a variety of courses available as short courses over the Easter and the Summer holidays, also a wide range of evening classes, such as Intermediate Drawing, Introduction to Painting, and Life Drawing.

If you have more time available huge development can be made in your practice by attending one of our part time day classes in drawing and painting, or our certificate programme. Please see all the options available on our web site.

Are there any other costs? What else should I bring each lesson?

Students must provide their own drawing materials. If you do not have your own materials, we recommend you order a Drawing Pack at the time of booking which will be available when you arrive for your first class.

A Drawing Pack contains

One set of lead pencils (2B, 4B, 6B)

One box of willow charcoal sticks

One box of compressed charcoal sticks

One set of conté crayons

Putty Rubber

Eraser

Auto lock knife
