

Course Title	Introduction to Oil Painting
Tutor	Archie Franks
Day & time	THURSDAYS, 6.30pm – 9.00pm
Dates	27 July - 28 Sept 2017
Course Code	EC1604237
Level	Beginners
Cost	£250

What is this course about?

A well-structured and systematic course for those who have never painted before, as well as for those who want to reinforce their basic skills in oils or to move onto oils having previously used acrylics or water-based media. Students learn to see colour, shape and tone and relate all these elements together in various compositions. This course aims to foster self-confidence and enjoyment of painting in a stimulating environment. There will be an opportunity to work from a life model as well as working from still life and discovering how to paint a portrait. Throughout the course students will learn from works of many artists to improve their development, it culminates in a more sustained painting developing the student's personal interests. It is an ideal course for beginners as there is plenty of guidance from the tutor.

What topics do we cover?

- Lay out a basic palette
- Working with a limited tonal palette
- Handling paint
- Laying down a tonal ground
- Drawing out and under-painting
- Glazing and paint mediums
- Understanding colour and mixing
- Understanding composition
- How to take a painting to completion

By the end of this course you will: understand how to use oil paints. Be able to undertake a painting alone. Understand how to mix colours, and have a good understanding of colour theory. Have an understanding of tone, composition, handling paint, and more. Have a number of paintings to take home.

About your tutor

Born in 1986 Archie Franks lives and works in London. He graduated from the Royal Academy Schools in 2012 and has been awarded the Sainsbury Scholarship in Painting 2013 which enabled him to work fully funded in Rome at the British School at Rome for a year, and a Jerwood Painting. Fellowship 2016 which consisted of financial support, a mentor scheme and a U.K wide touring show starting at Jerwood Space in London. He has exhibited in numerous group and solo shows both in the U.K and in Europe, including 'Bloomberg New Contemporaries' for promising new graduates in 2013 as well as having contributed articles to publications 'Garageland' and 'Arty'. His work has been positively reviewed in 'Time Out', 'Critic's choice in the Financial Times', 'Art Monthly' 'This is Tomorrow' and 'Fad magazine' amongst others.

What level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

The course is for beginners, so no previous experience is necessary and is ideal for those who are looking to build confidence in their painting.

How will I be taught, and what feedback and support will I get?

Your experienced tutor will support you throughout the course in both group sessions and one-to-one support providing regular feedback, critique and constructive advice. Each course ends in a final round up session and should you wish for any specific feedback or support, please speak with your tutor at the start of your course.

When I've finished, what course can I do next?

There are a variety of courses available as short courses over the Easter and the Summer holidays, also a wide range of evening classes, such as Intermediate Painting, Portrait Painting, Saturday Open Life Class, Life Drawing etc.

If you have more time available huge development can be made in your practice by attending one of our part time day classes in sculpture or the sculpture certificate programme. Please see all the options available on our web site.

Are there any other costs? What else should I bring each week?

The Academy is a white spirit and turpentine free environment and only odourless spirits, such as Zest-it or Sansodor, are permitted on the premises. Students must provide their own spirits, which can be recycled for longevity.

Everyone needs to bring with them:

1 jar with lid (old jam jar)

A few cloth rags

You will need to bring your own painting materials to the class, which you can store at The Art Academy for the duration of the course. If you do not have your own materials, we recommend you order an Oil Painting Pack at the time of booking, which will be available when you arrive for your first class. There is also a mini shop in the studio that supplies the basics such as canvas boards, paints, Zest-it etc. (cash purchases only).

An Oil Painting Pack (£50.00) contains:

A set of bristle brushes, both flat and round, suitable for either oils or acrylics

One tear off palette (9"x12")

One palette knife

One bottle Zest-it (250ml)

One 10"x 12" canvas board
 One 10"x 14" canvas board
 Two 12"x 16" canvas boards
 6 Daler Rowney (Georgian) oil tubes: Titanium White, Cadmium Yellow, Alizarin Crimson, Cadmium Red, French Ultramarine and Burnt Umber
