9 November 2019	The focus of this class will be around looking - learning to look closer and understand the model primarily through drawing. There will be two portrait models so that all students can be accommodated with good proximity to the subject. Day one will begin with tonal drawing using conte (compressed charcoal) on paper, before moving on to painting in a limited palette. Students will get the opportunity to draw or paint both models and will be encouraged to move to different parts of the studio to try different angles and light conditions. N.b. photography of the models is not permitted.	YES x 2
10 November 2019	Day two will feature different models and a different set of background colours. The first half of the day will be centred around drawing. From midday, students will have one-to-one tuition throughout a sustained painting of one model N.b. Photography of the models is not permitted.	YES x 2
